

PRINCETON IN MUNICH - Applications for Princeton in Munich are now available online through the following link: <https://gps.princeton.edu/>

When you enter the website, click on Study Abroad and then Summer Study Abroad Programs. Then do a search for Princeton in Munich. This will bring you to the application. The DEADLINE to apply is February 22.

Steps to Munich

Quick Facts

Arrive May 30 or 31 (Tuesday or Wednesday); Depart June 28 or 29 (Wednesday or Thursday by noon)

Program Fee of $2900 includes tuition, lodging, and cultural excursions

Airfare / You purchase your airline ticket; the department will provide a travel subsidy up to $1000 towards the airfare.

Travel Subsidy Information

To receive your Travel Subsidy from the German department and to attend the Princeton in Munich Program; you must do four things:

1. Apply through SAFE (Student Activities Funding Engine) <http://www.princeton.edu/studentfunding/> for the subsidy. In SAFE you must upload your airline receipt. Search for Princeton in Munich 2017 to apply.
2. Register your travel in Concur <http://travel.princeton.edu>
3. Complete the online information worksheet (link from Pat Heslin)
4. Submit your completed Medical Profile form to Pat Heslin in a sealed envelope.

The only funding provided by the German department is the travel subsidy which is capped at $1000.

Financial Aid / Funding Information

First years, sophomores, and juniors may apply for funding through SAFE (Student Activities Funding Engine) <http://www.princeton.edu/studentfunding/>. Yes, this is the same site where you submit your airline receipt for the travel subsidy. Search for Princeton in Munich 2017 to apply. Be sure to check Dean's Fund in your application. The Dean's Fund has an early deadline date; apply as soon as you think you want to go to Munich. THE DEADLINE IS MARCH 10 AT MIDNIGHT. There are places both outside and within the University to look for financial support for study during the summer. The Dean's Fund for Study Abroad offers competitive awards to students on financial aid who enroll in structured academic study abroad and language programs lasting at least four weeks. No funding is available for seniors.

For summer courses taken for credit, the Office of Financial Aid offers aid recipients student loans to help meet the costs of summer courses. Princeton in Munich satisfies this criteria.

For more information about funding, please visit: <http://www.princeton.edu/oip/sap/finances/summer/>

Information for your SAFE application

Tuition $1184 + Lodging $797—Total Tuition and Lodging $1981

Trips and Cultural Events: $ 919

TOTAL to GERMAN DEPARTMENT: $2900

Airfare Estimate: $1500 - $1000 travel subsidy from the German Department $500

Estimated Expenses (meals, pocket money, travel and other incidental expenses) $30 per day for 30 days $900

Health Insurance (Optional) $100

TOTAL Out of Pocket Expenses: $1500