

A Narration

Alexander Kluge in Princeton

October 20-21, 2016

Thursday, October 20

- 4:30 PM Conversation
Alexander Kluge and Devin Fore on History and Obstinacy
Whitman College Theater
- 7:30 PM Reading with Videos and Music
Alexander Kluge, "Narration." Piano accompaniment, Jamie Rankin
Whitman College Theater

Friday, October 21

- 10:00 AM Richard Langston (UNC Chapel Hill), "Every Flower Has Its Star": Kluge's Poetics between Astrophysics and Alchemy"
Alexander Kluge, Video Montage with Commentary
Lutz Koepnick (Vanderbilt), "Kluge's Moments of Calm"
Betts Auditorium, School of Architecture
- 1:00 PM Joint Reading and Conversation
Alexander Kluge and Ben Lerner, "The sky stops painting and turns to criticism"
Betts Auditorium, School of Architecture
- 2:30 PM Leslie Adelson (Cornell), "Making Time with Alexander Kluge in 'Saturday in Utopia'"
Alexander Kluge, Video Montage with Commentary
Philipp Ekardt (University of London, School for Advanced Study),
"Gesture and Discernment: The Power of Feelings according to Alexander Kluge"
Betts Auditorium, School of Architecture
- 4:30 PM Lecture
Alexander Kluge, "Public Sphere and Experience Today"
Betts Auditorium, School of Architecture
- 8:00 PM Film
"Signatures of Responsibility"
Betts Auditorium, School of Architecture