

April/May 2021 Graduate Newsletter

- April 15 Reenrollment begins
- April 23 Works-in-Progress – Andreas Strasser 1:30 pm EST
<https://princeton.zoom.us/j/98685048198>
- April 27 Spring term ends
- May 4 Andrew Dechet, PhD defense (Zoom address TBA, 1:00 pm EST)
- May 6 Princeton Research Day 2021, researchday.princeton.edu

Important Notices

- University-related travel is currently suspended and only permissible on an exceptional basis per the latest University guidelines found on the International Princeton Travel site. Graduate students who are granted permission to travel by Global Safety and Security are required to submit their travel plans in Enroll My Trip, the University's travel registration system. The Enroll My Trip tool is required for all graduate students engaging in permissible University-sponsored domestic or international travel. Students who have been reviewed and approved for travel must attach documentation of that approval as part of their reenrollment request.
- If you plan on presenting a paper in another department, please let Lynn know the date as soon as possible so that we can check that it will not conflict with other events already scheduled on the department calendar. Once the date is firm, we will publicize the event on the German website/social media.
- The recently created The Service Point is a new one stop shop for your questions related to Housing, TigerCards, Parking Permits, Bikes and Scooters, Paw Points, Commuter Options, Passport Photos, and Notary Services.
609-258-8300
Schedule an appointment
Live chat available M-F 8:45am-5:00pm
Contact us using our online form
- Please submit items for the news section of the German department website through the new webform available on the department's website. The form streamlines the process for submitting stories without any back and forth about what information is needed in order to post a story.

Please contact Janine or Lynn with any questions or comments about the contents of this newsletter.

- The Graduate School has launched improvements to My Financials, the centralized home for graduate student financial information in TigerHub. My Financials continues to offer the traditional resources while also integrating access to paycheck history and graduate assistance programs, all in one place.
- The University Center for Human Values is accepting applications to the Laurance S. Rockefeller Graduate Prize Fellowship for the 2021-22 academic year. Those wishing to apply should submit an online application on the Global Programs System (search Program Name: Rockefeller and Show: Scholarship).